

Lambda Health System is an ambitious health technology company that is revolutionizing neurorehabilitation. Our breakthrough innovation, a robotic device for the lower limbs, serves patients with neurological disorders, enhance their mobility and increases therapeutic intensity in ways never reached before.

To support the production and maintenance of our growing device fleet we are looking for a

Technician

On-demand / Part-time to be defined | based in Switzerland, Yverdon-les-Bains, travel to customers facilities

In this role, your missions will be to support the Production Manager in the execution of the following activities:

- ▶ Maintenance and repair of our machinery fleet (partly abroad)
- ▶ Manufacturing of new devices
- ▶ Contribute to improve technical documentation
- ▶ Ensure high-quality service for our customers

Your qualifications

- ▶ Degree or certification in automation or equivalent or professional experience
- ▶ Self-reliant and meticulous
- ▶ Good communication skills with customers
- ▶ Fluent spoken and written French. Basic knowledge of English.
- ▶ Proficiency with standard IT tools
- ▶ Category B driving licence

What we offer

- ▶ An exciting and stimulating work environment
- ▶ Participating in the growing phase of an innovating medical device
- ▶ The possibility of flexible job, part-time or on-demand to supplement another activity or for a retired person

If you want to join a young and motivated team, if you enjoy a stimulating multidisciplinary environment and are willing to improve the quality of life of thousands of patients around the world, we will be pleased to receive your application form (Cover letter, CV, work references).

Contact us per e-mail: job@lhs-sa.ch